Digital Collections at MSFRIC

...MSFRIC Digital Collections are a vision. Our goal is to fully integrate digital resources within our current framework of traditional products, projects, and services. We expect to have tools in place through our integrated library systems that will provide seamless and transparent access to digital collections.

As libraries evolve in the second decade of the 21st century, accessing digitized content will play as important a role in the transference of knowledge as the printed word. MSFRIC's first foray into digital collections include:
1. Lecture given by Gen Muir S. Fairchild for the staff and faculty of the Command and

Staff Course and members of the Army Air Forces School Staff on March 6, 1946

2. AULIMP (Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals)

3. Gen John P. Jumper, CSAF, 2001-2005 letters

4. Gen Henry H. "Hap" Arnold's letter on a successful military career
