New → Primo Search

MSFRIC is launching a new search interface for its resources. The interface will be available as a search box on the MSFRIC homepage beginning Friday, 1 June. You will be able to search most MSFRIC resources in a single search by selecting the 'Everything' option.

This includes our library catalog, Index to Military Periodicals database, AU Student Papers, some of our subscription periodicals as well as free resources, and a small local digital collection. Some of our periodical databases can only be searched by using the 'Databases' option. The AU papers option is the new public search interface for the student papers of Air University schools and includes approximately 7,000 papers for the years 2006 to current. To access the new search interface directly, click here. Check it out and let us know what you think. Feedback is welcome!
