Chief Hockersmith's photographs show: (cover) the HSV-X1 "Joint Venture" as it passed under the Newport Bridge and (back cover) the USS Iowa (BB-61) as it passed by Luce Hall at the Naval War College. The HSV-X1 is an initiative of the Navy Warfare Development Center in Newport to develop and refine a high speed vessel for future missions. The Iowa was beginning its inter-fleet transfer to the Suisun Bay, in California. Cover concept and design by: CAPT David A. Williams, U.S. Navy.*
